celexon - your specialist
for home cinema and AV solutions

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

The tilted AV desk face plates from the celexon Expert series offer the ideal solution for connecting a multitude of cables centrally and at the same time invisibly. Depending on the type, all kinds of image and audio equipment, such as projectors or displays can be connected. When the aluminium face plate is closed, it is almost invisible and provides perfect integration into the environment. The high-quality AV desk face plates with the pneumatic tilt mechanism also provides high durability.
